

ADVANCED CLASSIFICATION TRAINING SEMINAR

MILLER & COMPANY P.C.
KANSAS CITY, MO
May 20th – 21st, 2008
November 12th – 13th, 2008

Day 1

- | | |
|---------------|---|
| 8:30 – 9:00 | Welcome and Objectives |
| 9:00 – 9:30 | Why Classification is Important |
| 9:30 – 10:30 | HTSUS Overview |
| 10:30 – 10:45 | Break |
| 10:45 – 11:45 | GRI 1 Session: Classify according to the Section and Chapter Notes and the Headings. |
| 11:45 – 1:00 | Lunch |
| 1:00 – 2:00 | GRI 2 Session: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Incomplete, unfinished, disassembled and unassembled (including methods of determining “essential character” and “principal function.”• Classification of goods consisting of multiple materials/substances |
| 2:00 – 3:30 | GRI 3 Session: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Determining the most specific description• Composite goods and sets |
| 3:30 – 3:45 | Break |
| 3:45 – 5:00 | GRI 4 and 6 Session: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Most “akin”• Classifying at the subheading level |

Day 2

8:30 – 10:30	Special Rules <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Use provisions• Parts and Accessories• Chapter 84, 85, and 90 parts• Parts of General Use
10:30 – 10:45	Break
10:45 – 12:00	Special Classes of Merchandise <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Textiles• Pharmaceuticals/Chemicals• Composite Machines• Functional Units• Computers
12:00 – 1:00	Lunch
1:00 – 2:00	Special Classes of Merchandise <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Containers• American Goods Returned• Articles Improved Abroad• Emergency War Materials
2:00 – 2:30	Tariff Management
2:30 – 2:45	Break
2:45 – 5:00	Workshop