

EUROPEAN UNION SECTION 301 – NEW PROPOSED LIST JULY 2, 2019

The Office of the U.S. Trade Representative (USTR) has posted a notice (which will later appear in the Federal Register) with a supplemental list of European Union (EU) products which have been proposed to be subject to additional duties of up to 100%. The supplemental list covers $4 billion of merchandise originating from any of the twenty-eight (28) members of the EU classified in 89 tariff subheadings in HTSUS Chapters 2, 4, 7-9, 16, 19-22, 28, 31, 72-74. The bulk of the listed products are food, such as pork, dairy, fruit, pasta, and whiskey. This list is in addition to the initial list of $21 billion of EU products described in the USTR's April 12 notice.

The schedule for submission of comments and a public hearing concerning these additional products are as follows:

- July 24: Deadline to submit requests to appear at the public hearing and summary of testimony
- August 5: Deadline to submit written comments
- August 5: Public hearing

Please contact Marshall Miller, Brian Murphy, Sean Murray, or Ryan Thornton with questions or for assistance in preparing comments or analyzing the potential impact on imports.
